

Chatsworth | Old English Leather

Specification Sheet

Old English is a premium, aniline-finished leather, lightly buffed and treated with a bespoke blend of oils and waxes to achieve its signature pull-up effect. The result is a warm, aged aesthetic with a naturally crackled, distressed surface that evokes authenticity and craftsmanship.

Renowned for its tactile richness and visual depth, this leather enhances the artisanal quality of hand-upholstered furniture—highlighting every curve, stitch, and contour with unmistakable heritage appeal.
