Hand-Built British Upholstery Since 1973

The Haworth Coffee Table is crafted in our Lancashire workshop using the same traditional methods found in our Chesterfield seating. Upholstered in full-grain leather with clean vertical stitch lines, it offers a refined, contemporary interpretation of British craft while retaining the quiet character of handmade furniture.

The inset glass top is polished and weighty, allowing the leatherwork beneath to remain visible while providing a practical, durable surface for everyday use. Each table stands on turned hardwood legs, hand-finished and fitted to the frame in the traditional manner.
